TO HOLD MOCK TRIAL AT Y.M. C. A. HALL TO-NIGHT

Unique Entertainment, in Which Many Well-Known People

Will Take Part.

Will Take Part.

The Mock Court Trial to be given in the hall of the Y. M. C. A. to-night is attracting widespread attention. The entertainment will be one of the most unique ever presented in Richmond, and there will be fun from start to finish. The prominence and special fitness of those who are to take part and the opportunity afforded to people unfamiliar with such matters to see just how a case is tried in court, combine to attract special attention to the court.

The stage of the hall will be laid out as a regular courtroom, with all the accessories, and the trial will be conducted in every respect with all the gravity of a supreme court session. The case will be handled on the exact lines of legal procedure, with experienced court officers in most of the positions; but for all that, will be so arranged that the two hours' proceedings are likely to furnish the biggest bunch of merriment, an audience has had in a long time.

Of course, all hearts will go out in tearful sympathy for the plaintiff, while as for the defendant, it is enough to say that no one would ever have believed it. The jury is distinguished enough to rivet the attention of an audience for a whole evening, and capable of being a whole show themselves.

This is the make-up of the court: Judge, Jo Lane Stern; clerk, Lawton Crutchfield; plaintiff, Miss Vifgille Petitit; defendant, Reginald Walker; defendant's attorney, Minetree Folkes; prosecuting attorney, Colonel A. V. Newton, of Wesseline Vernice of the court of the courting of the courting attorney, Colonel A. V. Newton, of Wesseline Vernice of the courting of the courting attorney, Colonel A. V.
